Subject: Energy in the Northeast Conference

Mr. Niemyski,

We are pleased to announce our annual conference on Energy in the Northeast to be held October 18 & 19, at the Hyatt Regency Boston Hotel, in Boston, MA. Challenges for the Northeast energy industry continue to grow with increasingly urgent issues such as global climate change, high and volatile commodity prices, the need for massive investments in demand-side solutions, generation and transmission, and the push for greater energy diversification. These challenges present opportunities for creative regional solutions.

This conference will address some of these key challenges that face the Northeast. Industry leaders will explore ideas and initiatives being considered to meet those challenges. Hear from representatives of:

- Connecticut Public Utility Control Authority
- Day Pitney LLP
- FirstEnergy
- Foley Hoag LLP
- Goodwin Procter LLP
- Holland & Hart LLP
- Holland & Knight LLP
- Hunton & Williams LLP
- ISO New England Inc.
- Levitan & Associates, Inc.
- Maine Public Utilities Commission
- Massachusetts Department of Public Utilities
- Massachusetts Institute of Technology
- Neptune Regional Transmission System, LLC
- NERA Economic Consulting
- New Hampshire Public Utilities Commission
- New York State Public Service Commission
- Rhode Island Office of Energy Resources
- Solar Design Associates, Inc.
- The Brattle Group, Inc.
- Van Ness Feldman
